MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: VASVARY, Joseph

1. The files of OSO-CIA reflect no pertinent information which positively identifies the subject of your inquiry. One Josef VASVARY, however, was Chief of the Hungarian Intelligence Service from 1941 to 1942 and before that, was Military Attache in Belgrade, Yugoslavia. He reportedly spoke the Serb language fluently. This information was derived from a report dated 13 June 1949 by a source whose reliability cannot be judged.
